Our study is motivated as follows. First, we find that few studies have investigated in a single study the effect of transformational-leadership style on the three MCS design choices, namely, comprehensive performance-measurement system (PMS), reward system, and reliance on broad-scope accounting (BSA) information and managerial performance.

Stock splits are events that increase the number of shares outstanding and reduce the par or stated value per share. For example, a 2-for-1 stock split would double the number of shares outstanding and halve the par value per share. Existing shareholders would see their shareholdings double in quantity, but there would be no change in the proportional ownership represented by the shares (i.e ...

Mintzberg said that managerial work was characterized by "brevity, variety, and fragmentation." Any attempt by managers to stick to a task usually failed because of constant interruptions. Today, managerial work has, if anything, become even more busy and stressful and more like a life manager's never ending day.

Managed services is the practice of outsourcing on a proactive basis certain processes and functions intended to improve operations and cut expenses. It is an alternative to the break/fix or on-demand outsourcing model where the service provider performs on-demand services and bills the customer only for the work done.. Under this subscription model, the client or customer is the entity that ...

Quality management ensures that an organization, product or service is consistent. It has four main components: quality planning, quality assurance, quality control and quality improvement. Quality management is focused not only on product and service quality, but also on the means to achieve it. Quality management, therefore, uses quality assurance and control of processes as well as products ...
