The West African Examinations Council (WAEC) is an examination board established by law to determine the examinations required in the public interest in the English-speaking West African countries, to conduct the examinations and to award certificates comparable to those of equivalent examining authorities internationally.

West African Examinations Council - Wikipedia

This is due to the fact that the topic “problems and prospects of financing small-scale enterprises in Nigeria” is a serious problem that need to be solved, and the solution will only come from those who are fully engaged in small-scale business because there would be able to give relevant information needed for the research work.
