yeah, that would be easy except the one i ordered from stihl as being for my 051(for saws prior to 9945249 use 11116479000) isnt the same as the one currently on the saw even though the ipl lists its as beng the same. the difference in dimensions i can see being related to decay/wear, but the new one doesnt have the ear that blocks the m5 tapped hole for removing the oil pump assembly.
